General Terms of Participation (A)

1. Contracting parties

- 1.01 Messe München GmbH, in the following referred to as Messe München
Am Messesee 2, 81829 München, Germany
- 1.02 Company applying for the participation in an event as exhibitor, in the following referred to as exhibitor.

2. Application, admission as exhibitor and rental contract

2.01 In order to take part, the exhibitor must complete the official application and submit it to Messe München before the closing date (application deadline). The exhibitor thereby accepts the General Terms (A) and the Special Terms of Participation (B). The application is legally binding. Conditions imposed by exhibitors are not accepted.

2.02 The closing date for applications is indicated on the application form (page 1).

2.03 All potential exhibitors wishing to take part in the event are to express their wish to do so by submitting an application as exhibitors for the respective event to Messe München. The application is to be submitted via e-mail completely filled-in, stamped and signed or online if this is offered. With the application, exhibitors express to Messe München their serious interest in taking part in the event as exhibitors. Messe München is entitled to treat applications which are received after the application deadline or after the start of stand allocation as late applications and desist from processing them. All exhibits must be described precisely in the application form. Co-exhibitors and additionally represented companies must be named in the application form or have to be registered latest before the admission will be sent out. The same particulars must be specified for them as for the exhibitor. Incomplete applications cannot be considered.

2.04 The exhibitor accepts that the General Terms and the Special Terms of Participation are legally binding as soon as an application has been submitted. The contract concerning stand space rental and participation in event (rental agreement) is not deemed to have been concluded before Messe München provides its notice of admission. Messe München's notice of admission also constitutes its acceptance of contract. Exhibitors do not have a legal claim to admission unless such a claim exists by law.

2.05 Exhibitors who have not fulfilled their financial obligations vis-à-vis Messe München, e. g. in respect of previous events, or have infringed the regulations governing the use of the exhibition center or General Terms and the Special Terms of Participation may be excluded from admission. Messe München is entitled to withdraw from the contract or to terminate the contractual relationship without notice if admission was based on incorrect or incomplete statements by the exhibitor, or if, at a later date, the exhibitor no longer fulfills the conditions for admission. Only such items as have been declared and admitted may be exhibited. Messe München may differ from the type, size and location of the exhibition space requested by the exhibitor and, as far as permitted by law, exclude exhibits from admission or make admission subject to appropriate conditions.

2.06 The rental contract comes into force when Messe München has notified the exhibitor in writing that he is admitted. This generally occurs when layout planning work has been completed. Messe München and the local organizer are also entitled to relocate or close entrances and exits to and from the exhibition grounds and halls, and to make other structural alterations. Exhibitors cannot make claims against Messe München because of such changes. Messe München and the local event venue's authorities may also subsequently, i. e. after conclusion of the rental contract, change space allocations, and in particular change the location, type, dimensions and size of the exhibition area rented by the exhibitor, insofar as this is necessary for reasons of safety or public order, or because the fair is oversubscribed and further exhibitors must be admitted or because changes in the assignment of exhibition space ensure that the facilities and space required for the fair are used more efficiently. However, such subsequent changes may not exceed the scope which the exhibitor can reasonably be expected to accept. Should such subsequent changes result in a lower participation fee, the difference in amount is to be refunded to the exhibitor; there is no right to interest on the amount to be reimbursed. Further claims against Messe München are excluded.

2.07 If exhibitors cannot use their stand space or are prevented from making full use of same because they have infringed legal or official regulations or the General Terms and Special Terms of Participation, they are nevertheless obliged to pay the participation fee in full and to pay Messe München compensation for all damage caused by themselves, their legal representatives or their agents; exhibitors are not entitled to cancel or terminate the contract unless the law specifically entitles them to do so. Without the prior consent of Messe München, which must be in writing, the exhibitor may not relocate, exchange or share his stand nor surrender it in part or in full to such third parties as are not co-exhibitors or additionally represented companies admitted for this stand by Messe München. The dates for stand set-up and dismantling must be strictly observed. Stands not occupied by the last day of the set-up period may be disposed of as Messe München sees fit.

3. Co-exhibitors

3.01 Stand areas are let only as a single unit and only to a single exhibitor as a matter of principle. However, the exhibitor is entitled to have co-exhibitors at his stand, provided he has registered them with Messe München and obtained Messe München's prior written consent. Messe München does not give its consent until the co-exhibitors concerned have accepted, in writing, the General Terms and the Special Terms of Participation. Co-exhibitors are subject to the same terms and conditions as main exhibitors.

3.02 A compulsory registration fee for each co-exhibitor applies as stipulated in the Special Terms of Participation.

3.03 The main exhibitor is liable for the debts and negligence of his co-exhibitors and their employees.

4. Terms of payment

4.01 When applying to take part, a down payment must be made on the participation fee expected; the amount is indicated in the application form. If the exhibitor is not admitted, the down payment is being reimbursed.

4.02 After receiving the invoice for the participation fees, the total amount minus the down payment becomes due. The terms of payment in the notice of admission/on the invoice must be observed. Exhibitors may occupy their exhibition area only if the invoice has already been paid in full.

4.03 If the exhibitor should subsequently change its contact details or wish to have an invoice re-issued, a handling fee becomes due as mentioned in the application form. As stipulated in the Special Terms of Participation, handling fees and reimbursement may apply also in cases of other subsequent changes demanded by the exhibitor and resulting in additional expenditure of work for Messe München.

4.04 If, despite being given a warning and extra time, the exhibitor does not observe the terms of payment, Messe München is entitled to withdraw from the contract and allocate the stand area to another participant.

4.05 The exhibitor is responsible for all taxes which may occur in the country where the exhibition takes place. In case such taxes are levied, the exhibitor has to pay them in addition to the participation fees. The exhibitor is not allowed to withhold any part of the participation fees.

4.06 Invoices are being sent principally by e-mail.

5. Assignment, set-off, lien

The assignment of claims against Messe München, offsetting against the participation fee and the enforcement of a lien are excluded.

6. Cancellation of the contract

6.01 Messe München is entitled to withdraw from the contract if composition or bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted against the exhibitor. The exhibitor must inform Messe München thereof immediately. Messe München is entitled to withdraw from the contract if the exhibitor fails to meet its financial obligations arising from this contract. Messe München extends the deadline by 5 days and this deadline for payment is not met either. Messe München is also entitled to withdraw from the contract if the exhibitor neglects its duty arising from this contract to respect Messe München's rights, objects of legal protection and interests and Messe München can no longer be reasonably expected to adhere to the contract.

6.02 Messe München is entitled to withdraw from the contract with the exhibitor or to terminate the contractual relationship with the exhibitor without notice if no rental contract for rental space is concluded between the local organizer and Messe München or if the local organizer refuses to provide rental space for Messe München. In this case exhibitors do not have any claims against Messe München, in particular no claims for damages.

6.03 If the exhibitor cancels his participation, the fees specified in the Special Terms of Participation fall due.

6.04 Apart from the right to terminate a contract specified by law, the exhibitor is not entitled to withdraw from the contract or to reduce the stand size unilaterally. The exhibitor has no entitlement to a change in the stand space already rented and above all not to a reduction in the size of the stand space concerned. If the exhibitor does not occupy the exhibition area allocated to him, he must pay the expenses mentioned in the Special Terms of Participation. Should the exhibitor declare his withdrawal from the event, Messe München is entitled to otherwise dispose of the rented space.

6.05 Messe München's right to claim further damages remains unaffected.

7. Stand equipment, design and lettering

The exhibitor undertakes to provide adequate stand constructions on its entire exhibition space during the entire event. The equipment and individual design of the stands are the exhibitor's concern in as far as they exceed the scope specified in the Special Terms of Participation.

The construction regulations applicable at the event's venue as well as Messe München's construction guidelines must be observed. They are included within the Exhibitor Manual which is sent to the exhibitor accompanying the notice of admission or shortly after.

The exhibitor undertakes to coordinate its stand design with Messe München before the event. Messe München is entitled to remove or change at the exhibitor's expense a stand if its design does not comply with the construction regulations applicable at the event's venue or with Messe München's construction guidelines.

8. Warranty

Complaints about any defects regarding the stand or exhibition area are to be made in writing to Messe München immediately upon notice, at the latest on the last day of assembly, so that Messe München can remedy such defects. Later complaints cannot be considered and cannot give rise to claims against Messe München.

9. Exhibits, stand personnel

Highly flammable or strong smelling exhibits or those whose demonstration involves noise may be exhibited only with Messe München's prior consent in written form. Exhibits may not be removed during the course of the event. The exhibitor undertakes to provide qualified stand personnel during the entire event.

10. Transport, assembly and dismantling of exhibits and stand equipment

The transport of exhibits to the exhibition stand and back, the storage of packaging, the use of lifting and carrying equipment, the employment of staff for packing and unpacking, the assembly and dismantling of exhibits, repacking and other associated activities are solely the exhibitor's concern. Messe München assumes no liability regarding these activities.

Messe München may prescribe, with binding force, a forwarding agent to carry out transportation within the exhibition grounds or from the port of arrival.

In any case the officially appointed forwarding agent's guidelines have to be observed.

11. Liability and insurance

11.01 Messe München is liable for personal injury (damage arising from injury to life, body or health) caused by neglect of duty for which Messe München, its legal representatives or agents are responsible, as well as for other damage caused by intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty by Messe München, its legal representatives or agents. Messe München is also liable for any damage caused by negligent breach of cardinal contractual duties by Messe München, its legal representatives or agents. Cardinal contractual duties are those duties the fulfillment of which enable the contract to be duly executed at all and in the compliance with which the other contracting party may generally trust. If cardinal contractual duties are breached, Messe München is liable only if the damage is typical damage and not consequential damage and then only up to 5 times the net participation fee, but no more than EUR 100,000 per claim. Messe München is under no circumstances liable for damage to or loss of goods brought to the event by the exhibitor or stand fittings or furnishings. In this case, it is immaterial whether such damage or loss occurs before, during or after the event. The same applies to vehicles left on the exhibition grounds by exhibitors, their employees or contractors appointed by them. For its part, the exhibitor is liable for any culpable damage to persons or property caused by itself, its employees, contractors appointed by it or by its exhibits and exhibition facilities. Each exhibitor is obliged to take out such insurance offering adequate coverage with an insurance company licensed to operate in the host country of the event and to pay the premiums due (including insurance tax) in good time.

11.02 Exhibitors solely are responsible for the safety of their stands and personnel during assembly, the actual event and dismantling.

12. Force majeure, cancellation of the event

12.01 If, as a result of force majeure or other circumstances beyond its control (e. g. failure of the power supply), Messe München is compelled, to vacate one or more exhibition areas temporarily or for longer periods, or the event is postponed or curtailed by the event organiser or Messe München as a result of force majeure or other circumstances beyond their control (e. g. failure of the power supply), the exhibitors do not thereby acquire the right to withdraw, cancel or reduce payment, nor do they have any other claims against Messe München, in particular claims for damages. The same applies if the exhibitor cannot participate in the event due to force majeure or some other reasons beyond Messe München's control. If the exhibitor is prevented from participating in the event for a reason for which it is personally responsible, the provisions set out in section 6. apply. If the event organiser or Messe München cancels the event because it cannot hold the event as a result of force majeure or other circumstances beyond their control, or because it has become unreasonable for the event organiser or Messe München to hold the event, Messe München is not liable for damages and disadvantages to exhibitors arising from the cancellation of the event.

12.02 Upon Messe München's demand, the exhibitor is obliged to bear an appropriate share of the costs incurred for the preparation of the event or joint presentation. Messe München determines the share to be paid by each exhibitor.

13. Data protection

13.01 Personal data which is collected on or transmitted by the exhibitor may be used for the fulfillment of the business purposes of Messe München within the framework of the statutory data protection provisions. Messe München and its affiliated companies, as well as its foreign representatives, are moreover entitled to use these personal data in order to inform exhibitors on a regular basis about the services provided by Messe München and its affiliated companies and foreign representatives by letter, e-mail, phone or fax. An overview of affiliated companies and foreign representatives, some of which reside outside the European Union (EU) and the European Economic Area (EEA), can be retrieved from our website www.messe-muenchen.de under the section "International." The exhibitor shall establish the preconditions required under data protection law to enable the above uses by means of appropriate measures (e.g. obtaining consent of his employees). The exhibitor is liable to Messe München for damages and expenses resulting from the infringement of this obligation and shall hold Messe München harmless from any third party claims upon first demand.

13.02 Some services which are necessary for the exhibitor's participation in the event will be rendered by third parties (e.g. freight forwarder, travel agency, catalogue publisher). Messe München is entitled to inform such third parties about the exhibitor's application and to transfer the relevant data.

14. Proviso

Regulations and guidelines of the authorities responsible in the host country, which deviate from these General Terms of Participation and the Special Terms of Participation or any of Messe München's individual regulations, or that impose additional restrictions, always have priority. The event organisers or the lessor of the exhibition grounds and Messe München are not liable for damages and other disadvantages sustained by the exhibitor.

15. Final provisions

15.01 The range of services covered by the participation fee is described in the Special Terms of Participation and Messe München's Exhibitor Manual.

15.02 If the exhibitor has commissioned Messe München to perform services subject to a charge, which are outside the scope of the Special Terms of Participation and the services listed in Messe München's Exhibitor Manual, he will be invoiced for the costs incurred.

15.03 All verbal agreements, individual and special arrangements are valid only with Messe München's written confirmation.

15.04 For both parties, the rights and obligations arising from this contractual relationship are governed by the law of the Federal Republic of Germany.

15.05 München is the place of performance, for all financial obligations too. München is the agreed place of jurisdiction for all litigations arising from the contract if the contracting parties are traders, legal persons under public law or a special fund under public law, or at least one of the contracting parties does not fall within the general jurisdiction of the German courts. The same shall apply if, after conclusion of the contract, one of the contracting parties moves his place of residence or customary place of abode from Germany, or his personal whereabouts are not known at the time of bringing an action.

15.05 All the exhibitor's claims against Messe München lapse after a period of six months from the end of the month in which the closing date of the event falls.

15.07 Should the provisions set out in the General Terms of Participation and the Special Terms of Participation be invalid or incomplete, the validity of the other provisions and that of the contract remains unaffected. In such cases, the contracting parties undertake to replace the invalid provision and/or fill the gap with a provision with which the contracting parties are most likely to achieve the economic purpose they pursue.
